MISSION STATEMENT

FWADA is a unique arts organization in a unique American place. Few cities of Fort Worth's size are privileged to command such a wealth of major art museums, and fewer still have such a vital community spirit. What truly sets Fort Worth apart, however, is the vigorous, longstanding, clearly defined cooperation between the museums, the university art galleries, the non-profit exhibition spaces, and the art dealers, all of which are full working members of FWADA.

To fulfill its stated mission to stimulate interest in the visual arts through educational programs, art scholarships, and art competitions, FWADA organizes, funds, and hosts exhibitions of noteworthy art.

FWADA sponsors the annual Fall Gallery Night and Spring Gallery Night for members and friends. FWADA also sponsors an annual show featuring submitted artworks from Member institutions, the summer Selections exhibition. Keep an eye out for our Gallery Guide! You can find our most recent issue in your FW Weekly newspaper, or pick one up at a Member gallery or museum.

All these attainments have created a stable environment that produces a steady stream of top-notch talent, including major local artists who exhibit their work nationally and internationally. Newcomers are frequently dazzled by the quality of work being created in every medium and style. Their passion reinvigorates Fort Worth patrons who have become habituated to the riches that surround them, reminding them anew that the most authentic cultural connection they can make is the one that affords direct communication with the artists who interpret and illuminate the life experience they share through common background and interests. Although the city is justly recognized for its cosmopolitan worldview, it is the local artists and their devoted collectors who are the lifeblood of the Fort Worth art market.

The members of the Fort Worth Art Dealers Association are pledged to the maintenance of a high standard of ethical conduct and professional integrity; these businesses furnish a model that gallery associations in other cities might do well to emulate. FWADA is to be commended for its important role as a contributor to the cultural and aesthetic richness of Fort Worth.

The Amon Carter Museum of American Art is celebrating its sixtieth year as a free museum presenting the best of American creativity. Since its opening in January 1961, the Carter has acquired one of the world's finest collections of American paintings, photographs, sculpture, and works on paper. Explore the collection from epic landscape and western paintings, elegant still lifes, and singular representations of war and exploration, to unparalleled modernist sculptures and abstractions. The celebration continues throughout the year, including our biggest, loudest, boldest party yet on September 25, our 60th Birthday Bash! Don't miss this free event full of family-friendly and hands-on art experiences and live music, all ending with a fireworks show.

“Agridulce” by Sheryl Anaya – Galería de la Rosa/Main Gallery. Through the exploration of my memories, Agridulce aims to examine the disconnect and detachment from place and home. The investigation of memories and familial relationships allow me to consider the audience's engagement through a series of collaged images from personal archives and the emotions and memories that are evoked through that interaction.

“Fogalmam Sincs” by Erika Nina Suárez – Annex Gallery. In an exploration to further deepen the generational connections between Erika Nina Suárez’s identity and multicultural upbringing, she is focusing on those closest to her. Suárez first began this project by studying her relationships with her parents, siblings, and grandmother, who visits when the weather changes. She executed these images by revisiting decades of family photographs, while also analyzing recognizable behaviors that were of interest to her.

To be safe and enjoy great art we are adhering to CDC guidelines.

Austin Uzor
New Meanings
September 9, 2021 – November 6, 2021
Opening Reception: Saturday, September 11, 2021, from 6 - 9 PM

Austin Uzor is a rising talent whose moody and atmospheric works are quietly revolutionizing the potential of contemporary painting. In his first solo exhibition, post-graduate school, Uzor transforms the gallery’s entire first floor into a site-specific installation by building an immersive environment out of painting and sculpture. For New Meanings, he reimagines a new space that exists beyond the confines of the self and the different worlds that we all move around in.

GALLERY NIGHT HOURS: 12-9 pm
Regular Hours: Noon-9

Gallery 440 presents Pushing Paper, a show of varied modern works on paper, including sketches to finished drawings, prints, lithographs and paintings by artists such as Marcel Mouly, Georges Braque, Pablo Picasso, Marc Chagall, Theo Tobias, Al Hirschfeld, Salvador Dali, and even some favorite local and regional Texas artists.

Collectively, the works in the exhibition range from all time periods, but primarily the modern era. The curation aims to celebrate all styles, techniques and genres so that we can learn and appreciate paper as a primary art form, fundamental to every artist’s practice. It’s an eclectic show with lots of surprises, even a pop-up featuring glass artist Duncan McLellan as part of SiNaCa Studios.

COLLECTIONS IN CONVERSATION
Currently on view in the world-renowned Louis I. Kahn Building, works from the Kimbell’s African, Asian, Ancient American, and European collections appear in thoughtful dialogue—masterpiece to masterpiece—across time, place, and medium.

Join us for lunch, afternoon tea, or light bites in the Kimbell Café or take a stroll through the galleries in the Kahn Building. Admission to the permanent collection is always free.
Since we are having a true Gallery Night and it is easy to social distance, you will not want to miss our featured artist Chasity Hernandez and see all of the great new works of our other artists. As an artist, Chasity has always been drawn to art, creating, and all its wonders. Sculpture is where she has found the true desire that burns within. Learning to listen to that desire has been what set her spirit free. “When I learned to silence my mind and listen to what the stone is whispering, I am able to carve the image that I feel is wanting released from the stone.” Chasity finds Meditation, Inspiration, Silence, Life lessons and the Clarity of following her own path. She conveys spirituality and hopefulness through BOLD abstract works. “Once learning to look within, one opens their heart and surrenders, it’s amazing what comes forth.” Chasity has cultivated the techniques of working with stone. She hopes one can feel her passion and receive the message that is yearning to relate to one's life. Also, one will see new works by Rebecca Low, Tatara Siegel, Nic Noblique/Skele, David Mikitka, Dewayne Nall, Christian Hootsell, Ken O'Toole and jewelry by Dale Ousley and Juliette Edgerton.
SiNaCa Studios is hosting local artist, Elena Greer, our fall Artist-in-Residence, as the featured artist for Fall Gallery night. Works that were created during the residency will be on display in the gallery from September 11th-September 17th. SiNaCa Studios will present collaborative online and in-person live-streamed demonstrations on Facebook and Youtube between Elena and the SiNaCa team from 6pm until 9pm on September 11th in the glassblowing studio. Fort Worth based artist, Elena Greer graduated cum laude from the University of North Texas’s College of Visual Arts and Design in 2017 after pursuing an art degree for 13 years. She also attended Tarrant County College, where she studied under artists who made a substantial impact on her work. Elena began painting with acrylics but has recently begun to explore the themes of her work in ink drawings. Her work originates from a single moment when the interesting and dynamic interplay of light through glass objects captures her eye. The relationship between light and the transparent solid is magnified through a series of processes that culminates in a final artwork that invites the viewer to find their own interesting dynamics within the shapes and lines.

Tarrant County College presents artist Ramon G. Deanda, and his ongoing body of work, South of Paradise, North of Hell.
Imagine standing amid a place engulfed by nonsense and chaos. Absurdity reigns here, common sense has long gone; it is an alternative world engulfed with alternative facts. The noise, the craziness is protected by inconspicuousness; either everyone decides to ignore this or there is no interest in seeking the true truth, nor alternative truths. South of Paradise captures this absurdity and foolishness present today using anthropomorphic animals to communicate these many complicated facets of society. This unique exhibit will showcase paintings, linocut prints, and interactive musical ceramic sculptures that create a truly unique exhibition experience.

Stack for Martha’s Sisters:
Dani + Sheilah ReStack
As partners and collaborators, Ohio-based artists Dani and Sheilah ReStack make video and photographic installations that explore connections between the domestic and the feral in contemporary life. Their approach weaves together real and mythical understandings of family, intimacy, place, desire and ritual. They often employ aspects of social practice and performance as a means to examine queerness, site-specific histories and human-animal relationships.

Lionel Lofton: Vivid Abstractions. Lofton believes art is a universal language. He makes sure we all understand what he is saying with his vivid expressions. His imagery often refers to concepts of inner strength, beauty, and spirituality. Lofton’s paintings, etchings, and monoprints have a quiet and introspective air about them. His cultural background and family focus serves as the inspiration for his work. While Lofton is best known for his colorful abstract paintings he also makes use of printmaking and mixed media, combining acrylics, watercolor, and selected objects. His works can be found in many public and private collections, which includes museums and corporate collections. Lofton holds BA and MA degrees and is an art educator. Pieces from our permanent collection, The Henderson-Light Collection of American Art and Art from the African Diaspora, will also be on display. Lofton will be available from 5pm - 7pm. Light refreshments will be served.
